

Computers and the Internet

Our world would be unimaginable without computers and the internet. Write an essay (about 300 words) on the advantages of with computers and how the Internet has changed our way of living. Also refer to the negative effects that computers and the Internet have on our society. What are the problems that occur when going online? In your article (about 200 – 300 words) consider the following:

